

1. Desktop Computers

Central Processing Units (CPU)

- Also known as computer towers
- Main component of a personal computing system
- Includes cables

Desktop Servers

- Closely resemble CPU
- Includes cables

Computer with Built-in Monitors

- Examples:
I-Mac series

2. Computer Periphery

Keyboards

Mice

3. Laptop Computers

Laptops

- Portable computer systems
- Also called notebook computers

Tablet Computers

- Single display, portable computer systems
- Large, flat panel touch-screen display

4. Printers

Desktop Inkjet Printers

- Printers used for personal (home) computers
- Excludes large commercial and industrial printers

Desktop Laser Printers

- Printers used for personal (home) computers

Dot Matrix Printers

- Printers used for personal (home) computers

Desktop Printer Combinations

- Printer units that have scanning and/or faxing capabilities
- Excludes units with photocopying capabilities

Fax Machines

Photo
Printers

Label/Card
Printers

5. Monitors

CRT Monitors

- These Cathode Ray Tube-based monitors are glass panelled
- They resemble televisions

LCD Monitors

- Liquid Crystal Display (LCD) screen backlit by a mercury bulb
- These

are the flat panel led monitors, similar to the ones found on laptops

Plasma Monitors

- Very similar flat screen appearance to LCD monitors
- Also backlit by a mercury bulb

6. Televisions

CRT Televisions

LCD and Plasma
Televisions

Combination TV/VCR

Closed
Circuit
Monitors

Combination
PC/TV
Displays

